DEFINITION OF COMPLEX APPRAISALS

FROM BOARD RULES—CHAPTER 200 SECTION 4B2

The actual amount of major residential work will be based on the geographical location of the applicant and at the Board's determination. Major residential work experience generally includes:

- A. Appraisals of residential property over $1 million;
- B. Appraisals of one to four unit residential properties over $250,000; or
- C. Appraisals of complex residential property.

*FROM BOARD LAW—32 § 14002

"Complex residential property" means a residential property of one to 4 units exhibiting characteristics, determined by the board, that are not typical of the property type or marketplace, including, but not limited to:

- A. Unusual forms of ownership, such as partial interests;
- B. Property interests other than fee simple, such as those encumbered by easements, life estates or elaborate lease terms;
- C. Unstable market conditions;
- D. Changing patterns of land use when issues of compatibility, zoning and highest and best use are significant factors;
- E. Environmentally contaminated properties; and
- F. Physical characteristics, such as lot size, topography and building type, that are unusual.
